Elector Registration and Elector Eligibility

Voters who are not on the voters' register may still register to vote at the advance voting opportunities or on general voting day. To register as a resident elector, you will be required to make a declaration that you meet the following requirements:

- You are 18 years of age on voting day,
- You are a Canadian citizen,
- You have been a resident of BC for at least 6 months immediately preceding the day of voting,
- You have been a resident of the Town of Lake Cowichan for at least 30 days immediately preceding the day of voting, and
- You are not disqualified by law from voting.

To register as a non-resident property owner, you must produce a copy of either the tax notice, property title, or assessment notice for the property for which you are applying to be registered. Only one individual who has been the registered owner for at least 30 days before voting day may register as a non-resident property elector – Corporations do not have the right to vote. If you are one of two or more owners, you must also bring the written consent of the majority of all the registered owners of the property to your registration as the non-resident property elector.

To register to vote on voting day as a resident elector or a non-resident property elector, you must meet the foregoing requirements. You are also required to provide at least two pieces of identification, one of which must bear your signature and at least one of which provides evidence of your place of residence.

Dated at Lake Cowichan, this 26th day of September 2020.
