Guide to Election Sign PlacementDuration of Election and Political Sign Placement*General rule for local elections:

Election signs for general local elections may be erected starting on the 28th day before general voting day and must end at the close of general voting for the election. Signs must be taken down no later than four days after the general election. This guide as outlined below is also applicable to federal and provincial elections.

Election Signs on Town Lands, Buildings, or Structures

- Election and political signs must not be placed on Town-owned property including (but not limited to):
 - on highways, roads, lanes, bridges and right of ways;
 - on boulevards* and medians or roundabouts;
 - in parks, on playing fields, trees, or planters;
 - on waste receptacles or newspaper box; or
 - on Town buildings or structures.

As an exception, election and political signs that have a sign face of no more than 0.6 metres square in area (approximately 2 x 3 feet) may be placed on a Town-owned boulevard immediately in front of a residential or commercial property with the consent of the property owner.

An additional exception is Town owned property at the Cowichan Lake entry sign at the "Y" between Youbou Road and Cowichan Valley Highway where election signs may be placed.

Election Signs on Private Property

- Election signs are permitted on private property, without the need for a sign permit, between the 28th day before general voting day and must end at the close of general voting for the election provided that the property owner consents to the placement of the sign.
- Property owners would be within their rights to remove and/or dispose of signage that has
- been placed on their property without permission.
- Election signs on private property at intersections must not obstruct sight lines as shown in the diagram attached to this information sheet.

Hazardous Placement of Election Signs

- Election and political signs must not be placed on public or private property in such a
- manner as to create a hazard for pedestrians, cyclists, or vehicles.
- As an example, election signs:
 - must not overhang Town-owned property;
 - must not be placed within one metre of a fire hydrant;
 - must not obstruct, simulate, or detract from a traffic control device or traffic sign;
 - must not become unsightly or dilapidated if damaged; and
 - must not obstruct sightlines at intersections (as shown in the attached diagram).

Schedule "A"

- Election signs must not obstruct the line of vision at an intersection between the height of 0.9 metres (2.95 feet) and 3.0 metres (9.84 feet), as measured from the top of any curb fronting a parcel (or if there is no curb, as measured from the crown of the roadway) in the area shown in the illustration below.

Election Signs Near Voting Places at the time of Voting

Under the Local Government Act, it is an election offence for an election sign to be located within 100 metres of a voting place during voting proceedings. This includes signage on private property.

- Contraventions of this law and other election offences carry serious penalties which could include fines, imprisonment, and prohibitions against voting in local elections and/or holding an elected local government office.
- Election signs found within 100 metres of a voting place on General Voting Day or on any of the advance voting days, will be removed immediately without notice under the authority of the Chief Election Officer and costs for such removal may be recovered from the deposit.

*Schedule "A"Guide to Election Sign Placement (Continued)*Enforcement and Penalties

- The Town Bylaw Officer and Election Office staff are available to answer your questions about the lawful placement of election signs.
- It is the responsibility of each candidate, elector organization and any other individual who places election signs in the community to ensure compliance with the bylaw in order to avoid the potential inconvenience and cost of enforcement and/or sign removal.
- Where time permits and the sign is not considered a safety hazard, the candidate or elector organization may be given the opportunity to remove the improperly placed sign.
- The Town will remove signage without prior notice if a sign is considered to be a safety hazard; if it is located within 100 meters of a voting place at the time of voting; or if a candidate or elector organization has not removed a sign in a timely manner after being notified or has been non-responsive to such requests.
- The Town is not responsible for the loss or damage of election signs that are placed in the community or removed under the bylaw.
- Election signs that are removed by the Town will be held at the Town Works Yard and may be disposed of without further notice if not claimed within seven days. Signs may be claimed at the yard from Monday through Friday, 8:15 am – 4:30 pm.
- A person who places election signs in contravention to the bylaw or fails to comply with the bylaw may be subject to a $100 penalty per day. For signs that are placed in a manner that constitutes a hazard, a penalty of $100 may apply. Penalties may be applied for each sign and for each day in violation of the bylaw.
- Complaints: Complaints regarding illegal sign placement should be directed to the Bylaw Enforcement Officer at 250-749-6681.
