To Whom it May Concern,

My name is Elise Nelson and I am currently participating in the British Columbia Ambassador Program, proudly representing Cowichan Lake. This program, spanning the province, is dedicated to nurturing personal development and equipping young adults with the skills necessary to thrive in their future pursuits. The opportunity to run extends to individuals who have previously held titles in local ambassador programs, such as the Cowichan Lake Ambassador Program.

In 2022, I represented A&W in the Lady of the Lake Ambassador Program (now known as the Cowichan Lake Ambassador Program), where I was awarded with the Catherine Boeckener Memorial Award, Miss Blossom, and the Public Speaking Award. I had the honour of being crowned as the 2022/2023 Cowichan Lake Second Princess, making me a part of the Cowichan Lake Ambassador Team. This led me to be more involved within our community, going to both local events and travelling throughout BC to represent the Cowichan Lake. My reign as an ambassador helped me enhance my public speaking, time management, and collaboration skills. I am thrilled to run for the British Columbia Ambassador title for numerous reasons, foremost among them the chance to continue my volunteer endeavours.

The British Columbia ambassador program encourages young adults to continue being engaged within their community, both locally and provincially. Those holding the title of British Columbia Ambassador travel through BC, representing the program and their community. The British Columbia Ambassador Program cultivates leaders with adept communication skills, persistent confidence, and branching provincial networks. Throughout the candidacy, we are evaluated on our public speaking skills, performance in personal interviews, depth of understanding of British Columbia, effectiveness of showcasing our community and promoting the program. To run, candidates are required to fundraise money for the program, covering the cost for accommodations, travel, and the bursaries that are awarded to deserving candidates.

I am reaching out to local businesses and organisations to assist me in my campaign, any donation is very appreciated. If you would like to contact me you can email me at [REDACTED] or call me at [REDACTED]

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Elise Nelson
