Dear Mayor:

Order of British Columbia ~ 2022 Call for Nominations

"In these challenging times, it is more important than ever to recognize those who are going above and beyond to make British Columbia a better place for everyone. If you know an extraordinary British Columbian who is making a difference in the lives of others, their community and our province, nominate them now for the Order of British Columbia."

-Premier John Horgan

Nominations for the province's highest honour, the Order of British Columbia, are now being accepted. This prestigious honour recognizes individuals who have demonstrated outstanding achievement, excellence or distinction in a field of endeavour benefiting the people of the province or elsewhere. I would be grateful if you could please share information about the Order widely in your community and with stakeholder groups.

Nomination forms for the Order are available online or by emailing the Honours and Awards Secretariat at bchonoursandawards@gov.bc.ca. The nomination deadline has been extended to Monday, April 4, 2022. Submissions received after this date will be considered in 2023.

Nominations are reviewed by an independent Advisory Council chaired by the Chief Justice of British Columbia. The Council also includes the President of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities. To date, 475 distinguished British Columbians have been appointed to the Order.

In addition to the Order of B.C., you may also nominate individuals for the province's other honour, the Medal of Good Citizenship. This medal recognizes citizens for their exceptional long-term service, and contributions to their communities without expectation of remuneration or reward. The medal reflects their generosity, service, acts of selflessness and contributions to community life. With the recent wildfire and flooding events in this last year there may be people in your community whom you wish to nominate for this honour. Nominations are accepted year-round and the nomination form can be found here.

Your leadership in recognizing deserving citizens in your community and promoting the Order of B.C. and Medal of Good Citizenship are very much appreciated.

Yours sincerely,
Lucy Lobmeier
